

JUMP START

Your Career
with GSA

CONNECT through Mentoring and Networking

- Meet with drop-in and résumé mentors and attend career presentations and workshops
- Visit with recruiters from universities at meetings
- Find your community at geology club and identity group meet ups, women in geology events and networking receptions
- Attend career workshops and a mentor lunches at Section meetings
- Apply to the On To The Future program and get paired with a mentor to help you navigate your first GSA Connects meeting
- Connect with geoscientists worldwide through our online member community
- Match with a mentor through our online one-on-one mentoring program

ENHANCE Your Skills

- Present and publish your research with GSA
- Work on real-world projects on public lands while building professional experience as a GeoCorps™ America or National Park Service Scientists in Parks participant
- Gain leadership experience by serving on a GSA committee
- Help shape science and technology policy on Capitol Hill through the GSA-USGS Congressional Science Fellowship
- Bridge the communication gap between policy makers and scientists through GSA's Science Policy Fellowship
- Build your portfolio and professional contacts with the Bruce and Karen Clark Science Communication Fellowship
- Receive exposure to science communication opportunities through the Science Communication Internship Program at GSA Connects meetings

FUND

Your Research, Travel, Studies, and Fieldwork

- Find support for your research through student research grants
- Grants, awards, and scholarships through GSA's Scientific Divisions and Geographic Sections
- Apply for a J. David Lowell Field Camp Scholarship to help attend field camp
- Achieve your full potential with an Expanding Representation in Geosciences Scholarship
- Earn complimentary meeting registration as a student volunteer
- Explore numerous travel grant opportunities to help support you attend meetings

EXPAND

Your Knowledge

- Take part in short courses and field trips at GSA Connects or Section meetings
- Learn best practices via publishing workshops
- Attend webinars to learn about career opportunities in geoscience
- Subscribe to our monthly email curated for students and early career professionals
- Dive into professional development and career resources online
- Find your next employment opportunity via the Geoscience Job Board

GSA Student Membership BENEFITS:

- Engage with members of your preferred discipline with one free Scientific Division; one Geographic Section
- Discounted meeting registration and online bookstore purchases
- Free online access to our top journals, Geology and GSA Bulletin
- 15% off Brunton compasses and instruments and 25% off Dovetail Workwear for women
- Negotiated car rental rates from Enterprise and National, along with Emerald Club benefits
- Special offer for opening an Interior Federal Credit Union membership
- Complimentary access to Geofacets Millennium Edition, an extensive database of georeferenced geological maps
- Store, view, and share maps and high-resolution satellite imagery with discounts on SOAR+ and SkyMap50
- Reduced online subscription pricing for the Journal of Geoscience Education