

Geological Society of America Position Statement Process

Geology and Public Policy Committee (GPPC)

This process is for new or substantially revised position statements. Position Statements have expiration dates from 3-5 years after approval by GSA Council, although they may be revised at any time.

*At any point in the process GPPC or GSA Council may elect to take some other action on the proposal or draft/revised position statements.