2024 GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA:

JOINT CORDILLERAN AND ROCKY MOUNTAIN SECTION MEETING

HERE'S THE THING ABOUT SPOKANE, IT ROCKS! What really makes it special is how you feel when you're here — the warmth of the people and the comfort of a mid-sized city packed with things to do. Spring brings opportunity to take advantage of the city's walkability and experience the power of a raging urban waterfall. Nestled between ancient lava flows, glacial floodplains, and granite peaks, Spokane is surrounded by geologic wonders of nature; the perfect place to unearth inspiration. Come explore this beautiful city to find genuine connections & fresh ideas.
